»Taste the World«

For the most popular culinary preferences.

Developed for culinary preferences

Italian and Asian dishes are proven to be the most popular ones in Europe. The oil mixtures are aimed precisely at this customer need.

Fast cooking is trendy

The product series is aimed at everyone who likes to try out new recipes without having to get hold of a variety of herbs and spices beforehand.

Italy's taste at home

The spicy-hot mixture is suitable as a topping for pizzas and pasta dishes, as a marinade for antipasti and vegetable chips or for Mediterranean spreads.

old design

Wok oil in a new design

For our new series, the popular BIO PLANÈTE Wok Oil is used as an oil mixture for wok dishes - with a tried and tested recipe, but with a new design. The series »Taste the world« will be a real eye-catcher on the shelf.

Appealing Product design

Our new product design stimulates the consumers' senses, whets their appetite and encourages them to try.

Asian flair

The exotic combination is suitable for stir-fried vegetables, curries, tofu or meat, as well as salads and dips.

The oil can be heated to a high temperature.
